DESCRIPTION
Description	The course is designed to introduce the fundamentals of services such as service economy, service sectors, etc & to explain the importance of service design. Students will learn various tools, frameworks and processes required for service design. Through design research, they will discover service design challenges and identify new service design opportunities. In many instances, service design is also a precursor to UI/UX design, and this course will contribute to the foundation required for UI/UX design.
OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE
This section describes the intention of instruction and what faculty members want to covered in the course.
Sl.No	Course Objectives
1	To understand the background and significance of Service Design
2	To understand and learn Service Design Tools and Framework
3	To apply service design process in a project
4	To learn to prototype service design solutions
SCHEDULE
Week/Class	Topics	Assignment Type	Assignment Brief	Assignment Number	Assignment Weight
Session 1	Introduction - Service Economy
Session 2	Service Design Fundamentals
Session 3	Service Design Elements - Stakeholders, Actors Touchpoints	In class activity	Identify Touchpoints of an existing service			-
Session 4	Project Selection + Secondary Research
Session 5	Hypotheses Formulation	In class + Offline	Service Diagnostics	Assignment 1	10
Session 6	Primary Research
Session 7	Synthesis of primary and secondary research	In class + Offline
Session 8	User Personas & As-Is Journey Maps	In class + Offline	User Research & Journeys	Assignment 2	20
Session 9	Ideation
Session 10	Final Solutions	In class + Offline	Service Ideas & Prototypes	Assignment 3	20
Session 11	Prototypes	Offline
Session 12	Desired Journey Map	In class + Offline
Session 13	Desired Journey Map + Service Blueprint	In class + Offline	Service Blueprint	Assignment 4	10
Session 14	Service Blueprint	In class review
Session 15	Final Presentation	Presentation	Pitch + Demonsration	Comprehensive	40
